College Grads Face Worst Job Prospects in History

Many college graduates will have to take jobs with a low pay scale, go into a field for which they are not specifically trained, according to Warren Mead, director of the University Placement bureau. However, Mead said, "general business jobs including selling, advertising, accounting, and personnel work, are more open in the Northwest than in the East." Mead said that, based on statistics recently released, there are fewer graduates looking for jobs here in the wide open spaces than there are in the more crowded areas of the Middle West and East.

School Alumna Wins Western Advertising Prize

An advertising award for best copy was written by a woman in the western states and British Columbia was won by Mandi Luebben, '46, Dillon, a journalism school graduate. The honor was the Los Angeles advertising women's fourth annual Francis Holmes award. Miss Luebben's winning copy was from a booklet prepared by the L. W. Hendt company, Great Falls advertising agency, in 1949 for use by the Great Falls Chamber of Commerce. She did the research for the material used in the winning booklet which was designed for general distribution, covering both tourist and industrial appeals of the city. In narrative style, with titled pages and suitable pictures, its theme is the city, its growth, and the river that gave it its name. Miss Luebben is now a junior writer for Bamberg's department store, the Macy affiliate in Newark, N. J.

Local Churches Form Association

The Protestant Christian association was formed Friday by student delegates from seven Missoula churches, Rev. Bruce K. Hod, director of the affiliated school of Religion, said yesterday. Churches composing the student organization are the Presbyterian, Baptist, Methodist, Congregational, Christian, Episcopal, Lutheran, and Unitarian. Officers were elected during yesterday's meeting at the residence of Reverend Wood. Dick Milne, Lundup, was named president of the association; Helen Lewis, Mulder, vice president; and Dick Me, Livingston, secretary-treasurer. The purpose of the Protestant Christian association is to plan and promote activities which will help students grow in their Christian faith and understanding. It is the policy of the association to welcome all interested MSU students into its fellowship and activities.

HELENA IS FURNISHING SUMMER QUARTER FILMS

Harold D. Fleming, associate professor of education, announced that films from the state film library in Helena will be shown during the summer session in the library building. Fleming said that MSU will have 150 films from the Helena film library.

sioner of labor statistics, has this to say about job prospects:

"In 1950, probably in 1951 and 1952, many will be unable to find jobs immediately in the occupation for which they have been trained."

Fewer Jobs

Cleague said there are fewer jobs for college graduates this year than in any postwar year and that an "unprecedented number" of new graduates is competing for them.

To get an idea of that "unprecedented number" here are some figures on college graduates in the past years:

In 1900, some 25,000 students took their first college degree, half as many as in 1920.

By 1930, degrees were being turned out at the rate of 122,000 a year. In 1940, this was up to 186,000. War caused a decline.

But in 1948, about 272,000, many of them veterans, took their first degrees, a new record. Almost 370,000 finished college last year.

The number of college graduates this year is about the same as the number of high-school graduates in 1920.

Decline Expected

Next year, colleges will graduate somewhat fewer students, but only because veterans are pulling out of the GI Bill program. The Veterans' Administration expects a "total enrollment" of 700,000 next fall, a decline of almost 200,000 from last fall.

However, the U. S. Office of Education says enough non-veterans may go to college to compensate for the veteran loss.

Anton Gives Piano Recital

Xenia Anton, Billings, will present her senior piano recital tonight at 8:15 in the Student Union auditorium.

Miss Anton has given three solo recitals during her studies at the University, has been accompanist for the Jubileers and has appeared as soloist with that group.

She also has given organ recitals. She will be heard again on Sunday as soloist with the University Symphony orchestra.

Miss Anton's recital will include the following selections: "Prelude, Chorale, and Fugue" by Franck; "Etudes, Op. 25," by Chopin; "Bagatelle, Op. 5," by Tcherépnine; "Pavane" and "Jeux d'Eau" by Ravel; "Sonetto 123 del Petrarca" by Liszt; "General Lavine-eccentric" by Debussy; and "Etude in D-sharp minor, Op. 8, No. 12" by Scriabine.

Concert Features Senior Soloists

Two graduating seniors will be featured soloists with the University Symphony orchestra at its final concert of the year Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Xenia Anton, Billings, pianist, will play the first movement of the "Beethoven Concerto No. 3 in C Minor." Miss Anton has been accompanist for the a capella choir and the Jubileers during the year.

Featured also will be Grant Mundy, Moore, who will present a trumpet concerto by Joseph Haydn. Mundy has been solo trumpet with the symphony orchestra for four years. He recently appeared as soloist with the Sinfonietta, and is a member of the symphonic band.

In addition to the orchestra, the university girl's glee club, directed by Norman Gulbrandsen, will be led by Eugene Andrie, symphony conductor, in the rarely heard "Stabat Mater" by Pergolesi. Singing the solo parts will be Patricia McGinty, Great Falls, alto, and Patricia McFadden, Dillon, soprano.

To complete the program, the orchestra will play "March of the Peers" by Sullivan, "Prelude, Choral and Fugue" by Bach, and the overture from "The Gypsy Baron" by Johann Strauss.

Mrs. Sarsfield Resigns Post

Mrs. Margaret Sarsfield has resigned as instructor in health and physical education for women and will reside in Butte where her husband, George Sarsfield, will enter law practice upon graduation from MSU.

An instructor at the women's gym since the fall of 1946, Mrs. Sarsfield was MSU's first woman golf instructor and started the course which has been offered to women for the last three years.

She has been in charge of women's intramural tournaments and adviser to the Women's Athletic association.

Upon graduation from MSU in 1937, she attended University of Southern California for a year, and was a member of the Helena high school teaching staff for four years.

His regional office is for the Washington, Oregon, Idaho, and Montana area. Professor Fleming is the university supervisor for student teaching.

Central Board Appoints Student Governing Bodies

Central board wound up its business for the year yesterday and appointed students to serve on seven committees for the next school year. They will work with certain faculty members and, in some cases, members of the alumni, in running campus affairs.

New members of the Traditions committee will be Don Stanaway, Billings; Dick Shadoan, Billings; Bob Nicholson, Hamilton; and Jayne Radigan, Great Falls.

Bob Anderson, Missoula, president of ASMSU, automatically becomes president of the Athletic board. Other new members will be Jackie Perry, Butte, and Jim Murphy, Missoula (also members of Central board); John Johnson, Butte; Bob Holding, Missoula; and Joe Brennan, Helena.

Four were appointed for the Intramural Sports committee. They are Jim Clinkingbeard, Loren Gerdes, and Ralph Ripke, all from Missoula; and Stan Rathman, Helena.

Jim Murphy, Missoula, ASMSU business manager, automatically becomes president of the Budget and Finance committee. Other members will be Aletha Bradley, Billings; Jim Snow, Butte; Al Galen, Missoula; and Joe Roth, Laurel.

New members of the Student Union Executive board will be Peg Ely, Bob Holding, and Roscoe Herington; Missoula; George Fox, Laurel; Jack Thomas, Helena; and Dick Wohlgenant, Miles City.

Tom Wickes, Missoula, senior delegate to Central board, will be chairman of the Publications committee. Other members will be Mary Jo Peterson and John Suchy, Missoula; Shirley McKown, Seattle; Marvin McArthur, and Joe Buley, Helena.

Yvonne Kind, Missoula, vice president of ASMSU, automatically becomes chairman of the Social committee. Other members will be Margaret Jesse and Mary Jo Peterson, Missoula; Janice Ludwig, Kalispell; and Hal Anderson, Miles City.

"The response to my call to serve on committees was certainly gratifying," Anderson said. "We would like to have found a place for everyone, but the number of volunteers made that impossible."

Anderson said that the Outside Entertainment and Convocation committees were not appointed because the organization for handling those functions was being revised.

In yesterday's meeting, Central board also:

Appointed Normamae Milkwick, Anaconda, to take charge of printing the 1950-51 M book.

Decided to share with the University the cost of seal-coating and improving the asphalt tennis courts. ASMSU will contribute $1,000 or half the cost, whichever is least.

The World in Brief . . .

Police Break Red Rioting At West German Border

Berlin, May 31.—(P)—West German police say they're winning that argument with 9,000 Communist youths heading home from their big week-end rally in Berlin.

The young Reds protested when they were stopped at the border near Luebeck and asked to undergo police registration and physical checkups. It was feared that some of them might have been carrying infectious diseases home to the West from the Berlin youth camps.

Several times last night, the youths tried to storm the police. Thirty Reds and six western police were hurt as the youths used fists, stone, and clubs in their attempt to force their way into western Germany.

A peace delegation headed by Karl Gunderlach, gray-haired chairman of the Hamburg Communist party, agreed to a truce shortly after midnight, German time.

NATIONALISTS CHARGE LIE WITH APPEASING REDS

New York, May 31.—(P)—Nationalist China's top UN delegate branded Secretary-General Trygve Lie a "would-be Chamberlain" tonight for trying to give China's UN seat to the Communists.

Chamberlain was the former British prime minister who returned from Munich in the uneasy days before World War II to declare that his deal with Hitler meant "peace in our time."

Chinese delegate Tingfu Tsiang says "Lie's policy virtually condemns the people of China to perpetual slavery." Lie recently made a trip to Moscow and other world capitals in an effort to break the UN deadlock over Nationalist China's credentials.

At about the same time as the Nationalist delegate spoke in New York, the Chinese Communist radio reported that Lie has been asked how soon Red China can count on becoming a member of the United Nations. The broadcast said that the Chinese Communist foreign minister has asked for an early reply.

BEN-GURION WILL BACK BIG THREE ARMS PROGRAM

Jerusalem, May 31.—(P)—Prime Minister David Ben-Gurion says he'll support the Western Big Three declaration on the sale of arms in the Middle East if it actually proves to secure the cause of peace. But the prime minister also told the Israeli parliament that there is no guarantee as yet that Arab countries have peaceful intentions towards Israel.

A Little Job of Promotion

The university administration maintains a news service and has a promotion fund. Every year music groups, faculty speakers, debaters and orators, and dramatic groups tour the state to advertise MSU. These efforts go far toward acquainting Montanans with their university. Yet perhaps the best and surest method of advertising MSU is relatively unexploited.

There are some three thousand potential public relations men on the campus right now. Collectively they are the student body. All the promotion schemes cannot be as effective as the work that could be done by the students themselves in persuading the high school graduates of their home towns to attend the University. Every time a graduate of a Montana high school goes out of state to college, it is a loss for the university system and in many cases may be credited to the failure of MSU students to talk up their own University.

Montana, in common with most colleges throughout the nation, faces a period of declining enrollment. The new grading system is partly aimed at correcting this. But the true solution is better advertising of the University, keeping a larger percentage of Montana students in Montana. Best-equipped to do this are the university students themselves. We've got three months before us in which to do a little advertising. Let's take advantage of it.

Know your University and make it known to others.—D.G.

Letters to the Editor . . .

FURTHER CRITICISM ON GRADE SYSTEM

Dear Editor:

I am against the new grading system. Since the announcement of this new system was made I have done some figuring and have come to some very interesting conclusions.

Take, for example, a case in which a student takes three five credit courses and gets a B, a D, and an F. Under our old system of 3, 2, 1, 0, -2, this student would have a total of 10 credits and 0 grade points—definitely less than a C average. At the University of Idaho, which was held up as a "shining example" and one of the bases of MSU's change, the system is 4, 3, 2, 1, 0, and 2.0 is needed for a C average. This same student, at the University of Idaho, would receive 10 credits and 20 grade points—exactly a C average, the F being thrown out.

Under MSU's new grading system this same student will receive 10 credits and 12.5 grade points—the F being thrown out—and receive a 1.25 average for the quarter.

If a student at MSU under the new system has enough patience and money, he may get all the F's he wishes, just so long as he finally has 180 credits with an equal number of D's and C's and will eventually get a degree. What will a really-earned diploma mean?

Well, future students at MSU—welcome once again to the "Playground of the Great Northwest."

Sincerely,
Marybelle Fry.

Master's Thesis Goes Up in Smoke

With broad smiles playing about their lips, MSU's master's candidates will be getting their degrees in a short while.

All except one, that is.

Mary H. C. Shea, Anaconda, went home at the end of last winter quarter. The M.A. degree in Spanish was just within her grasp. All of the necessary work was completed, including her thesis. At the end of spring quarter she was to be granted her degree.

Then it happened. An explosion rocked her home, shattered the walls, and started a fire. Her thesis went up in smoke.

W. P. Clark, dean of the graduate school, immediately contacted Miss Shea and told her if she could file an abstract of her thesis she might yet get her degree. But up to this week no abstract had been received.

USC Takes PCC Title; Doyle Wins Discus Toss

Southern California's national champion track team thundered over all opposition to win their 10th consecutive Pacific Coast conference title Saturday at Berkeley, Calif.

Dick Doyle, one of the nation's best discus tossers, annexed the platter event as he threw 168 feet 8 3/4 inches to win over his nearest competitor, Sam Iness, USC, by more than ten feet.

Doyle's throw, which accounted for all of Montana's five points, was made in the preliminaries Friday, and was not threatened Saturday by Iness or Len Rinearson of Oregon State.

The Trojans, paced by excellent individual performances by distance runner Jim Newcomb and hurdler Dick Attlesley, both of whom won two firsts, piled up 62 1/5 points.

Stanford Second

Stanford's Indians were second with 42 1/5, California's Bears finished third with 35, and Oregon's Webfeet, who last week won the Northern division coast title, chalked up 31 1/5 points to place fourth.

Newcomb of the Trojans won both the mile and two-mile runs, being clocked in 4:19.6 in the mile and 9:25.2 in the longer run. Attlesley raced the 120-high hurdles in 14.3, and won the 220-low hurdles in 23.5.

Shotput Record

An outstanding performance was given in the shot, where Otis Chandler of Stanford broke a meet record with a toss of 57 feet 4 3/8 inches. It was the best throw of his career.

Doyle's throw stamped him as a threat for the nation's discus title. Vic Frank of Yale is now the only obstacle in the tall, bronzed Montanan's quest for the crown.

Phi Delt's Cop Track Title For Third Successive Time

Phi Delta Theta edged out Sigma Phi Epsilon 49 to 46 to win the annual intramural track meet last Thursday and Friday on Dornblaser field.

For the third straight year, the PDT team came through to win the meet. The deciding event was the relay in which the Phi Delt's grabbed second to cinch the title.

Larry Howard and Jose Stell of SPE kept their team in the race throughout the meet. On Thursday, Howard jumped 20 feet 4 1/2 inches to win the broad jump, and on Friday edged out Bob Yurko of the Phi Delt's to win the 100-yard dash. Stell was impressive in racking up wins in the 220 and high jump. Stell was forced to share the first-place title in the high jump with Bob Hagenston, lanky Phi Delt. Stell, who won the 440 in last year's event, finished second in this year's 440.

Other team scores in the meet were: Sigma Chi, 14 1/2; Phi Sigma Kappa, 12; Sigma Alpha Epsilon, 10 1/2; Alpha Tau Omega, 7; Foresters, 6 1/2; Theta Chi, 3; and Sigma Nu, 2 1/2.

Dick Urquhart of the PSK team was the distance star of the meet, winning the mile and half-mile.
